

Model of the International Civil Aviation Organization

REGULATION

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

ORGANIZATION

- (1) The Model of the International Civil Aviation Organization [hereinafter Model] is intended to provide students, academics and practitioners with a forum for discussion, exchange and training on issues related to international civil aviation.
- (2) The Model is organized under the aegis of the Quebec Society of International Law with the support of the ICAO General Secretariat, and is led by a Organizing Committee supported by a Secretariat.
- (3) Each participant is responsible for reading this Regulation, the rules of procedure and the delegate's background guide. These documents are available online on the Model website. He also has the duty to regularly consult the Model website to find out about updates and additions to documents. In case of conflict between the rules stipulated in these documents, Article 14 of this Regulation applies.
- (4) All post-secondary institutions around the world are eligible. Institutions must send at least one delegation and a maximum of three delegations. Delegations consist of one to two delegates for each of the five committees as well as an ambassador. They are therefore composed of a minimum of six students and a maximum of eleven. It is allowed for a student to participate more than once in the Model.

(5) The Model takes place in Montreal at ICAO Headquarters, in English and French.

(6) Each institution may be accompanied by one or more instructors.

(6) All communication must go through the official address of the Secretariat, info@modelicao.com. The registered delegations, who have received the contact details of their contact person at the Model, must go through the email address that was sent to them after confirmation of their registration. Communications between the delegations and the Model are made by the responsible person indicated at the time of registration, and always mention the name of the institution. Also, the papers of intent must be transmitted according to the standards indicated in the guide of the delegate. Communications that do not meet these requirements will not be considered and will not receive a response.

(5) The dates for each edition is posted on the Model website no later than the end of June of the precedent year.

Article 2

STEERING COMMITTEE

(1) The Organizing Committee is composed of the Model Director, the Scientific Director, the Director of Presidencies and Committee Compliance, the Secretary General and an ICAO representative.

(2) The Organizing Committee makes its decisions by a simple majority.

Article 3

REGISTRATION

(1) Each institution must register before the date set in the calendar, by filling out a registration form available on the Model website. Registration fees per country represented and 10% of the registration fees per delegate and Faculty advisor must be paid at registration, directly on the website, and cannot be refunded.

(2) Once registration has been validated, an invoice is sent to each institution. Payment is made within 20 working days. The payment must cover any bank charges or transfers.

(3) The registration fees cover the material organization of the Model: registration for the professional development day if applicable, lunch during the Model, the opening ceremony, the closing ceremony and the cocktails. Accommodation and transportation are the teams' responsibility.

(4) If necessary and according to the deadlines set in the calendar, the Organizing Committee decides on any claims for reimbursement of the fees paid. No refund will be granted in the event of the elimination of a delegation according to Article 9 of this Regulation.

(5) The delegations' composition must be notified to the Secretariat by the date set in the calendar.

(6) Any changes to a delegation's composition must be notified to the Secretariat as soon as possible. No changes may be made to a team's composition within 48 hours of the start of the Model, except with the express permission of the Secretary.

(7) Any participant who is not part of a Canadian team must send proof of entry in Canada according to the schedule. Documents must be sent to the Secretariat by the instructor.

Article 4

DELEGATIONS ASSIGNMENT

(1) The Organizing Committee assigns each delegation a Member State of the Council. An institution presenting more than one delegation will therefore be allocated more than one Member State of the Council.

(2) At registration, each institution lists five Council Member States and two continental blocs that it wishes to represent.

(3) The allocation is based on the following criteria: date of registration (first come, first served), order of preference expressed by the delegation as to the Member States of the Council, order of preferences expressed by the delegation as to the continental blocs.

(4) A delegation may not be allocated the Member State of the Council of origin of its institution.

(5) One delegation can not obtain more than two Council Member States belonging to the same continental bloc.

(6) The names of the Member States of the Council allocated shall be communicated to the delegations following the date set in the calendar.

(7) Assignment of delegations remains non-public until the first day of the Model to ensure an anonymous correction of the papers of intent.

Article 5

TECHNICAL COMMITTEES

(1) Five committees are formed: Committee on Aviation Environmental Protection, Legal Committee, Aviation Safety Committee, Aviation Security Committee and Economic Development Committee.

(2) The Director and, where appropriate, a co-director ensures the scientific quality and consistency of the debates and negotiations content, as well as the respect of the Committee's mandate.

(3) The President ensures the good conduct of the exchanges of each committee and the respect of the rules of procedure.

- (4) The President and the Director of each committee form the chair. For the Council, the Presidency is composed of the President of the Council and the Secretary General of ICAO.
- (5) Two topics are announced for each committee on the date set in the calendar.
- (6) Study guides, produced by the directors, are published on the Model website on the date set in the calendar.

Article 6

COUNCIL

- (1) The Council brings together the ambassadors of each delegation.
- (2) The Council is composed of the President of the Council, the Secretary General of ICAO and the ambassadors.

Article 7

PAPERS OF INTENT

- (1) Each delegation must prepare a paper of intent for each subject of each committee. The ambassador does not have to produce paper of intent.
- (2) To be admissible, the papers of intent must respect all the criteria and conditions envisaged in the preparatory guide of the delegate.
- (3) In order to be eligible for the best paper award, the paper of intent must be submitted within the time set in the calendar. In order to ensure a quality of debate and fairness between the institutions, it is imperative to be able to participate in the negotiations of a committee to have submitted its paper of intent no later than seven calendar days after the stated deadline for submitting the papers of intent.
- (4) The papers of intent will be published on the Model website on the dates set in the calendar.
- (7) The papers of intent will be corrected anonymously by each of the directors and the notes will be communicated to the Organizing Committee at least 24 hours before the start of the Model.
- (8) In their correction, the directors appreciate the quality and the relevance of the subject treatment, the reasoning coherence, the respect of the official position of the State represented, the Committee's mandate, the documentary research, the material presentation and the language quality.

Article 8

REGISTRATION

- (1) On the first day of the Model, each team must register. The ambassador, or failing that, the instructor, must present himself at the registration desk indicated on the Model website with the identity cards of each member of his delegation. The documents and badges will then be given.

(2) Each participant and instructor must wear their badge at all times during the Model. No participant will be allowed to enter the ICAO compound and participate in the model if he does not visibly wear his badge.

(3) If a badge is lost or forgotten, the Secretariat must be informed as soon as possible.

Article 9

PENALTIES AND COMPLAINTS

(1) Penalties may be imposed on teams that do not comply with this Regulation.

(2) In the following situations:

- Use of any electronic device during formal sessions unless expressly authorized by the Presidency;
- Communication during formal sessions outside authorized media in the delegate's preparatory guide;
- Communication with an instructor contrary to Article 12 of the working papers presented;
- Any audio, video, or other recording by any means whatsoever — including smartphones, tablets, computers, smartwatches, recording glasses, or any other wearable device — during formal or informal sessions, corridor negotiations, or any activity taking place within ICAO premises, without the express authorization of the Organizing Committee;

The following penalties are applied by the Presidencies of the Committees and the Permanent Council or by a member of the Organizing Committee:

- Warning;
- Exclusion for a formal session;
- Ineligibility for the award of the best delegation in committee.

(3) For the papers of intent:

- Plagiarism leads to the immediate disqualification of the team presenting the paper of intent for the award of the best paper of intent in the committee to which the paper is presented;
- Failure to comply with the physical rules of presentation, the rules relating to team identification elements or the rules for electronic submission and e-mail results in a loss of 10% on the evaluation of the paper of intent.

(4) No paper of intent can be exchanged, distributed or diffused in any way between the teams or publicly before the Secretariat publishes them on the Model website under penalty of being eliminated from the Model.

(5) The Organizing Committee shall definitively settle any complaint lodged by a team in good time for any violation of this Regulation after having heard the representatives of the teams concerned, as well as, where appropriate, the Presidencies concerned.

(6) For any serious or reckless violation of this Regulation, the Organizing Committee may impose penalties such as the disqualification of the Model team.

Article 10

AWARDING PROCEDURE

(1)

Individual distinctions:

- a) Pierre-Cardin Award for Best Ambassador — Best Ambassador in the Permanent Council
- b) Best Delegate in Committee — Best delegate for each committee
- c) Best Position Paper — The two best position papers in every committee

Distinctions by delegation:

- d) Outstanding Delegation — One award for all delegations
- e) Distinguished Delegation — One award for all delegations
- f) Honourable Delegation — One award for all delegations

(2)

Procedure of attribution:

Best Delegate Award by Committee:

- a. In the first round, within each committee, peers nominate the top three delegates.
- b. In the second round, the committee chair and director select the best delegate among the three peer-nominated candidates.

Pierre-Cardin Award for Best Ambassador, awarded by the Chair and the Director of the Permanent Council.

Best Delegation Award in Committee and in Council (Outstanding, Distinguished and Honourable), awarded by the committee chair and director based on the following weighted criteria:

- c. Mastery of procedures (evaluated by the chair): 20%
- d. Mastery of role (evaluated by the chair and director): 35%
- e. Mastery of topics (evaluated by the director): 45%

- f. Mastery of procedures (evaluated by the chair): 20%
- g. Mastery of role (evaluated by the chair and director): 35%
- h. Mastery of topics (evaluated by the director): 45%

Best Position Paper Award, awarded to the two best position papers per committee by the director of each committee.

Article 11

POLICIES AND CODES OF CONDUCT

- (1) All participants are required to read, understand and comply with the policies and codes of conduct of Model ICAO, available in full on the Model ICAO website at www.modelicao.com/policies. These documents form an integral part of the obligations of all participants.
- (2) The following policies and codes of conduct apply to all participants:
  - a. Policy on Sexual Harassment;
  - b. Policy on Interethnic Relations;
  - c. Dress Code;
  - d. Code of conduct on the Use of ICAO Premises
  - e. Delegate's Code of Conduct;
  - f. Faculty Advisor's Code of Conduct;
  - g. Head Delegate's Code of Conduct;
  - h. Guest's Code of Conduct.

Article 12

CERTIFICATES

- (1) The Secretariat issues, within one month of the end of the Model, certificates of participation.

Article 13

ROLE OF INSTRUCTORS

- (1) During the preparatory phase, instructors are encouraged to contribute to the preparation of students in the knowledge regarding ICAO, subjects and rules of procedure. Instructors can select team representatives, participate in the general discussion of the issues raised in the study guides and make suggestions for the documentary research. The instructors may also discuss the points proposed by the team, without substituting for the latter. Instructors cannot take part in drafting papers of intent.
- (2) During formal and informal discussions, instructors can only intervene at the request of one of their students. They can only intervene with a student or a binomial of their delegation. They cannot interrupt formal or informal discussions. They cannot interact with the presidency.
- (3) During the Model, the Organizing Committee delegates at least one person to meet the instructors and receive their comments and suggestions at a meeting convened for this purpose.

Article 14

INTERPRETATION OF THE RULES AND ADDITIONAL RULES

- (1) In case of questions as to the interpretation of any of the articles of this Regulation, the Secretariat shall receive them. The Organizing Committee will issue an interpretive guideline which will be posted on the Model website.

(2) Any questions relating to the rules of procedure are forwarded to the Secretariat. The Secretary General, in consultation with the Organizing Committee, will issue an interpretive guideline which will be posted on the Model website.

(3) The Organizing Committee may adopt additional rules applying to cases not provided for in this Regulation and in the rules of procedure.